CHAIRMAN

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20415

May 8, 1978

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Alan K. Campbell

SUBJECT: Presidential Management Intern Program

Last August you signed in the Rose Garden Executive Order 12008 creating the Presidential Management Intern Program. I am writing now to:

- (1) give you a progress report on the program; and
- (2) invite you to speak to the first group of program participants on July 14.

The program is designed to select each year 250 top quality Masters Degree recipients from public management programs in our colleges and universities. The program's purpose is to move boldly forward in introducing to the excitement and challenge of public service the best of our nation's highly trained young people. The selection process has been a rigorous one, and its results will, I feel certain, fulfill the high purpose of the program.

Beginning last fall, deans of schools of business and public administration were invited to recommend candidates. Over 900 nominations were received. These nominees were then considered by regional selection panels made up of Federal career civil servants, representatives of colleges and universities, and state and local government officials.

Two-hundred and fifty participants and 55 alternates have been selected. These individuals come from 127 schools located in 40 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. Forty-eight percent of the selectees are women and 20 percent are minorities.

Fifty Federal agencies want to appoint interns. The total appointments desired already greatly exceed the 250 appointments that may be made under the program.

The involvement in the program of key state and local officials should produce additional benefits for public service throughout the nation. State and local representatives have been provided the names of selectees, alternates and other nominees, and will have an opportunity to offer appointments in their own jurisdictions. We also hope that during the two-year internship that those working in Federal agencies will have an opportunity to work for a period of time with a state or local government.

The first-year interns will be in Washington for orientation during July 12-14. I hope very much that you can find time on your schedule on July 14 to talk with them and those who will be supervising them on their first assignments. The program has been enthusiastically received by college and university officials as well as by students. Your continuing close association with the program will aid in maintaining this enthusiasm and will provide a close relationship with the higher education community that I believe is useful to your Administration.

Just as with so many other of your initiatives, this one will have a lasting impact on the quality of the Federal government. The future top managers of Federal departments and agencies are bound to be drawn from these interns and their successors. Combined with your expansion of the College Co-operative program and your civil service reforms, lasting and fundamental improvements are being made to Federal management capability. Your continuing personal identification with these programs will contribute greatly to their success.

I am attaching more information about the interns selected and where they come from.
